Dear Tracy and Allison

Thank you for your letter of 3 April in relation to the Bridgend boundary change.

I want to put on record my recognition of all the work that was undertaken by both health boards in order to make the boundary change happen, not least within a challenging timescale. This is a significant achievement by all involved and clearly reflective of successful and effective partnership working. You can be assured that the complexity and work involved on the part of the health boards has not been underestimated.

With regard to the issues you have raised regarding the financial impact of the boundary change, Alan Brace is continuing the discussions with your Finance Directors.

But in the meantime, may I again offer my sincere thanks to you and your staff for the achievement, given this has been a high profile change with clear expectations from Ministers.

Yours sincerely

Dr Andrew Goodall CBE
