

Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTHB_301_17

Thank you for your request for information received on 5th September 2017, regarding Nitrous Oxide (laughing gas). Please find the response from Cwm Taf University Health Board set out below:

You asked:

Have there been any incidents of nitrous oxide (laughing gas) being stolen from hospitals in the health board area in the last year?

Have there been any incidents of nitrous oxide (laughing gas) being stolen from hospitals in the health board area in the last 5 years? (2012 -2017)

Our response:

I can confirm that there have been no incidents of oxide (laughing gas) being stolen from any hospitals within the health board area, during the time period requested.