

Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTHB_58_19

You asked:

I would like to request the following information from your antenatal, maternity, midwife, post-natal and family services departments under the Freedom Information Act 2000.

For the financial year 2018/19 or the calendar year 2018-2019, whichever is more convenient, please provide the following information.

1. Do you distribute any free promotional disposable nappies (such as Pampers) or reusable nappies to parents at any services, including (but not exhaustive of) antenatal, maternity, midwife, post-natal and family services?

If the answer is yes to 1, please answer questions 2-7.

2. Which disposable or reusable nappy brand do you allow to distribute their promotional nappies?
3. Which services are they distributed at and how many parents use these facilities annually?
4. How frequently a year have these disposable or reusable nappy brands been able to distribute their promotional material at these services?
5. What is the process for allowing disposable or reusable nappy brands to distribute at your services and who signs it off?
6. Is there any remuneration for the NHS from these disposable or reusable nappy brands for distributing their promotional material?

Our response:

Parents are required to bring in their own nappies. However, Pampers nappies are provided in the Bounty packs that are given to mums on discharge, for which we receive financial remuneration.
