

Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTMUHB_155_20

You asked:

Please note that the information provided below relates to Urgent Suspected Cancer (USC) referrals. The April 2020 data may not be fully complete as we are currently validating that information for reporting at the end of May.

- 1. How many patients were seen by a doctor/specialist after an urgent referral by a GP and then diagnosed with cancer between February 1st 2016 – April 30th 2016

276.

- 2. How many patients were seen by a doctor/specialist after an urgent referral by a GP and then diagnosed with cancer between February 1st 2017– April 30th 2017

289.

- 3. How many patients were seen by a doctor/specialist after an urgent referral by a GP and then diagnosed with cancer between February 1st 2018 – April 30th 2018

283.

- 4. How many patients were seen by a doctor/specialist after an urgent referral by a GP and then diagnosed with cancer between February 1st 2019 – April 30th 2019

320.

- 5. How many patients were seen by a doctor/specialist after an urgent referral by a GP and then diagnosed with cancer between February 1st 2020 – April 30th 2020

244.