

Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTMUHB_40_24

You asked:

We are researching the use of online sexual health testing services. These services allow citizens concerned that they may have a sexually transmitted infection to order a test kit to be sent to their home, and then to either self-test at home, or return a sample to the laboratory, receive a result usually via email or text message, and to obtain medicines and further advice if required.

Please answer the following questions in relation to online sexual health services.

1. Does the authority commission or procure these services
2. In each of the financial periods 2021-22, 2022-23, April to December 2024
 - a) How much did the authority spend on these services
 - b) How many citizens were tested using online services
3. How much was spent (by the authority or predecessor organisations) in each period with each of the following providers for online sexual health services
 - a) Preventx
 - b) SH 24
 - c) TDL or their NHS joint venture, Health Service Laboratories
 - d) Viapath
 - e) Synlab or their joint venture, Synnovis
 - f) Lloyd's pharmacy
 - g) NHS Trusts/ their laboratory services
 - h) Other. Please name any provider where the spend in any year exceeded £100,000
4. When did the authority last issue a tender for these services?
5. When does the current contract expire?

Our response:

We can confirm that Cwm Taf Morgannwg University Health Board does not commission or procure these services and does not hold the information requested. Online Sexual Health Testing Services are provided by Public Health Wales \(PHW\), on an all Wales NHS basis.

Therefore, for the information you require you will need to redirect your request to PHW whom provide these services.
