Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTMUHB_585_24

You asked:

Has there been any formal request made by Rhondda Cynon Taff County Borough Council to use any of the land, buildings or facilities of the health board in the Treorchy area since 1 January 2023. If there has been anything formal, please would you provide a copy of that request with the date of its submission? Please also state what was requested.

If so when was the request made and what are current status / plans and next steps by the health board in respect of that request.

Our response:

We can confirm that there has not been any formal request made by Rhondda Cynon Taff County Borough Council to use any of the land, buildings or facilities of the Health Board in the Treorchy area since 1 January 2023.
