Freedom of Information Request: Our Reference CTMUHB_270_25

You asked:

Could you please provide some information under the FOI act.

1. From December 2024 to now, how many diagnostic radiography posts have you advertised that would have been suitable for a newly qualified diagnostic radiographer?
2. How many people applied for each diagnostic radiography post advertised from December 2024 to now?

Our response:

Please see information below, split by site:

Prince Charles Hospital

Three diagnostic radiography posts were advertised that were suitable for newly qualified diagnostic radiographer's.

There were 113 applicants. Please note that there was one advert for the three posts. These posts were advertised together as there were three vacancies at once. Therefore, the answer is 113 applicants for each post.

Princes of Wales Hospital

One six month diagnostic radiography post was advertised that were suitable for newly qualified diagnostic radiographer's.

There were 171 applicants.

Royal Glamorgan Hospital

There has been one vacancy since December 2024- a temporary fixed term band 5. Students were eligible to apply

There were over 100 applicants.
