You asked:

1. Over the past 18 months how many 'Executive away-days' have been held?

18 months from March 2026 = September 2024 to March 2026.
Total number of away-days = 15.

2. Including 'assistant Director away-days'?

Two days (ADs in Digital arranged) totalling £1040

3. What was the cost of this?

Total costs associated with executive away-days = £5,646.02

4. Were the events catered for and if so how much did this cost?

In this context, we have assumed catering refers to a lunch meal. The vast majority of the bookings for room hire off-site are costed as "day delegate rates" and therefore the total cost of the room and refreshments is wrapped into one price, per person. Therefore, it is not possible to calculate an accurate cost for the catering element only. There is one booking that does outline a separate cost of catering which was £540.

5. Did anyone submit travel expenses? If so what was the total expenses?

Travel expenses claimed for Executive away days would be limited to mileage (a standard rate) and car parking charges. However, it is not possible to extract this granularity of detail to specifically attribute to the 15 away day events outlined above.
